

FROM THE RIVER CALLED JORDAN

A GENEALOGY OF THE LOVETT AND MARGARET WILLIAMSON
JORDAN OF NEWTON COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI

William Harold Graham, Ed. D.

April 2016

By his first wife, whose name is said to have been Lucy, he had eight children, the youngest of whom was Garrett River Jordan (1840 – 1862).

Joseph Jordan

Joseph Jordan appears in the 1840 Federal Census of Orange Parish, Orangeburg County, South Carolina as the head of household of five free white persons including one free white male age 5-9; one free white male, ages 30 – 39 (Joseph Jordan); two free white females, ages 5-9; one free white female, ages 20 – 29 (wife of Joseph Jordan). He is not presently located in the 1850 Federal Census.

Lovett Jordan

Lovet Jourden appears in the 1830 Federal Census of Orangeburg County, South Carolina with a household consisting of one free white male, ages 20 – 29 (Lovett Jordan), one free white female ages 10 – 14; one free white female 20 – 49.

Lovit Jordan appears in the 1840 Federal Census of Orangburg County, South Carolina with a household consisting of one free white male, under the age of 5; two free white males, ages 5 – 9; one free white male, ages 30 – 39; one free white female, ages 5 – 9; one free white female, ages 20 – 29.

Lovett Jordan first appears on the Newton County Personal Tax Roll for 1843; his father-in-law, Charles Williamson, appeared a year earlier.

Lovett Jordan appears on later tax lists as well as the 1845 Mississippi State Census for Newton County, Mississippi.

In 1846 Lovett Jordan paid personal taxes on the following lands in Newton County, Mississippi:

W 1/2 of SW 1/4 Section 28, Township 7, Range 12 East
SE 1/4 of NE 1/4, Section 29, Township 7, Range 12 East
NW 1/4, Section 29, Township 7, Range 12 East
W 1/2 of SE 1/4, Section 29, Township 7, Range 12 East
NE 1/4 of SE 1/4, Section 29, Township 7, Range 12 East
W 1/2 of NW 1/4 Section 33, Township 7, Range 12 East

The full extent of Lovett Jordan's land is unknown, however, he applied for Land Patent #14512 land in Newton County, Mississippi, on 28 May 1859, such land as described as SE 1/4 SE 1/4 Section 29, Township 7, Range 12 East consisting of 39.98 acres for which he paid $1.25 per acre for a total of $49.97 (which strangely enough, is land for which he paid taxes in 1846). On a current map this land is located on Country Club Drive in Decatur, Mississippi.

in baskets of varying sizes forming an arch, with bunches of flowers tucked cozily in various places.

Rev. J. E. McCraw performed the beautiful single ring ceremony uniting them for life. Miss Marjorie Gaines sister of the bride, was bride's maid and Harmon Dunnagin, best man. The wedding march was played by Miss Lois Duntagin. Misses Sara Frances Carleton and "Tootsie" Gaines were ushers.

The bride was never more beautiful in a dress of poudre blue with grey accessories. The dress of Miss Marjorie Gaines, bridesmaid, ■■■■■ ashes of roses. Only relatives and very close friends of both families were guests.

The bride and groom left immediately for a few days "honeymooning" in Vicksburg ■■■■■ other interesting places. When they return they will be at home with the groom's mother, Mrs. W. D. Pace in Decatur.

The Newton Record, July 31, 1947

Mrs. Robin Pace Is Death Victim at Decatur Tuesday

Mrs. Joseph Robin Pace, 32, died at the family home in Decatur Tuesday morning, July 29, at 8:30 o'clock, following a lengthy illness. Mrs. Pace was stricken three years ago with leukemia and put up a brave fight to overcome this dread disease. She became worse a few weeks ago and was hospitalized in Meridian, but returned to her home in Decatur Friday of last week.

The funeral was held at Clarke-Venable Church in Decatur on Thursday morning at 10:00 o'clock, the Rev. W. A. Huglin, pastor, officiating. Interment was in the Decatur cemetery with Williams Funeral Home of Meridian directing all arrangements. The large crowd in attendance at the last rites ■■■■■ the profusion of choice flowers attested to the popularity of this young matron.

Mrs. Mary George Gaines Pace was born at Decatur and had lived there all of her life. She was the second daughter of Mrs. Lucy Thornton Gaines and the late Andrew Gaines of Decatur. A devout member of the Baptist Church, Mrs. Pace lived a consecrated Christian life. All that medical science could do for this disease was done for her during the period of her illness. She bore her long illness with fortitude, was a devoted wife and mother, and had been active in community affairs.

Mrs. Pace leaves, besides her husband, a daughter, Carol Lynn Pace, ■■■■■ Decatur; her mother, Mrs. Lucy Gaines, Decatur; four sisters, Mrs. Thomas G. Mansfield of Washington, Ga., Mrs. Albert Overman of New Orleans, La., Mrs. Willis E. Blum of Decatur, and Mrs. Jack C. Smith, Jackson; one nephew, Jack C. Smith, Jr., Jackson; a number of uncles and aunts and other relatives. One son, Joe Rand Pace, preceded her in death.

Children from this marriage were:

39 M i. Joe Rand Pace [3888] was born on 13 Jun 1935 in Decatur, Newton County, Mississippi,²⁴ died on 5 Aug 1938 in Decatur, Newton County, Mississippi²⁵ at age 3, and was buried in Decatur Cemetery, Decatur, Newton County, Mississippi.

White single male, born June 16, 1935, Decatur, Mississippi, and age 3-0-19. Died August 5, 1938, Decatur, ■■■■■ buried in Decatur. Parents: J. R. Pace (born Decatur, Mississippi) and Mary George Gaines (born Decatur, Mississippi). Informant: Mrs. J. R. Pace, Decatur, Mississippi. Cause of death: "killed instantly by cow-gored with horns. Pace, Joe Rand County Capital: Death Notice 11 August 1938 (Pg. 3)

Last Friday morning, despite the watchful surveillance of his mother who was gathering vegetables in her garden ■■■■■ had him with her, little Joe Rand Pace slipped through a crack in garden ■■■■■ playing with a baby calf when the mother cow ran at him, hooking him in the chest, one horn penetrating his little heart and the other his right lung. Imagine the anguish of the mother when she picked his mangled little form up and he looked up at her once and closed his little eyes in death, the horror of his father when a message came to him at his work in F. B. Gaines' store that his adored little son, who had hugged him repeatedly in good bye when he left home only a short time before would brighten their home no more.

His funeral conducted from the Clarke-Venable Memorial Baptist Church Sunday was beautiful and impressive. The Rev. J. E. McCraw, pastor of the church assisted by the Rev. T. M. Ainsworth, Methodist pastor, reading appropriate scripture and speaking comforting words to the bereaved parents and relatives. A beautiful feature of the funeral service was the singing in their clear sweet little voices of "Jesus Loves Me" by members of his little Sunday School class, and playmates composed of Jane and Joseph Todd, Johnny and "Tissie" Graham, Dorothy Anne Jones, Johnny and Jeannette Massey, Doty Johnson, Roscoe Smith and Shirley Brand.

Besides his parents he leaves a baby sister, Carol Anne, his paternal grandmother, Mrs. W. D. Pace; his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Andrew Gaines; great-grandmother, Mrs. Henry Thornton; and a number of aunts and an uncle.

"Through the open door he walked away
For the Shepherd called, - yes, He came that day,
And lead him out, where the children play"

Jordan, Charles Lovett

Jordan, Charles Lovett, enlisted 28 Aug 1942 in the United States Navy at New Orleans, Louisiana, age 21. Civilian occupation: Student. Service schools attended: Spurts Park Central Methodist and Small Arms, Davisville, Rhode Island. Served on: NC "I" Da-Visville, Rhode Island, Construction Battalion Detachment 10 41, 14th Construction Battalion, Decatur, and others. Asiatic Pacific Theater of Operations Medal with 1 Star; Good Conduct Medal, American Theater of Operations Medal. Discharged as Carpenter's Mate First Class (1) Construction Battalion at New Orleans, Louisiana, 10 Jan 1946.

The following letter was sent by Charles Jordan's commanding officer in his new base:

1. Charles L. Jordan, CM 2/C, served in the Military Training Department since November 1942.
2. Jordan is an enthusiastic instructor, is very energetic and cheerful toward his work, and was one of the first instructors in our group of over a hundred men. He commanded and trained platoons in the field, was one of the few instructors selected to lecture to large groups of students on map reading, field sketching, use of the Lensatic compass, and security on the march.
3. My personal observations have found Jordan to have considerable leadership ability, one who accepts responsibility naturally, and one who is well liked by his associates and students.
